The Knickerticker Newsletter

Happy New Year to all Knickerbockers! I hope everyone had a Merry Christmas and peaceful holiday. December was hectic as usual, but a lot of fun. I hope everyone enjoyed Christmas Dinner, the vast amount of kids, caroling, live entertainment, food (especially sweets) and Mystery Dinner Theater. Kudos to all our actors; Bill Merriman, Catherine Henry, Frank Barkdoll, John Spyak, Barb Rasmussen and the murderess herself, Phyllis Schroth! And congrats to Lidia Fox for outfoxing us all and solving the puzzle!

This month will be one to slow down, catch our breath and regroup. My computer quit mid month and so I am far behind, so short & sweet newsletter this month. We will resume with every other Friday soup. We will have one event this month – something different for all you history and sports buffs; The 1920's Cleveland Indians.

We are starting a card playing group, first one will be after soup on the 12th. If we get a good response, we will schedule a regular time. Also adding a “happy hour” appetizer schedule to one Bingo a month. If you enjoy we will expand to more days. Remember, we have the bean bag toss game and giant dice if you want to participate in those, they are in storage closet in Social Hall.

Happy New Year everyone! Hope it brings great peace & joy! ....cheryl
